CONTENTS

Preface vii
Acknowledgements ix

Part One. Refereed Papers 1

1. Concurrent Checking of Global Cross-database Integrity Constraints
   Stefan Böttcher 3

2. Increasing the Accuracy of Time-tabled Condition Monitoring
   Binling Jin and Suzanne M. Embury 21

3. Designing High Integrity Systems Using Aspects
   Geri Georg, Robert France, and Indrakshi Ray 37

4. Towards Effect Preservation of Updates with Loops
   Steffen Jurk and Mira Balaban 59

5. Application Controls in a Client/Server Environment
   Fred de Konin g 77

6. Protecting Java Component Integrity Against Trojan Horse Programs
   Marcel Winandy, Armin B. Cremers, Hanno Langweg, and Adrian Spalke 99

   Elmarie Kritzinger-von Solms and Leon A.M. Strauss 115

Part Two. Invited Papers 135

8. The Very Brief History of Digital Evidence Standards
   Mark M. Pollitt 137

9. Multi-representation: A New Paradigm for Databases
   Stefano Spaccapietra, Christelle Vangenot, and Christine Parent 145

10. The Impact of Web Services on Audit
    Cristina Buchholz 151
Part Three. Vendor White Papers

11. Integrity Mechanisms in German and International Payment Systems
Detlef Kraus
175

12. Monitoring Mission Critical Data for Integrity and Availability
Michael Gertz and George Csaba
189

Part Four. Tutorial "The Subversive Spreadsheet"

13. Stop that Subversive Spreadsheet!
David Chadwick
205

14. A Typical Model Audit Approach
Grenville J. Croll
213

Part Five. Panel

15. Opportunities and Challenges in Tracing Security Breaches
Michael Gertz
223

Index of Contributors
227

Index of Keywords
229