The Marshall plan: fifty years after

Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Preface ix
Contributors xi

Introduction 1
Tony Judt

Part One
The Marshall Plan and European Construction

1 From the Marshall Plan to EEC: Direct and Indirect Influences 13
   Michelle Cini

   Jolyon Howorth

3 Cooperation and Community in Europe: What the Marshall Plan Proposed, NATO Disposed 61
   Robert Latham

Part Two
The Others: From the Outside Looking In

4 The Marshall Plan and Czechoslovak Democracy: Elements of Interdependancy 93
   Bradley F. Abrams

Part Three
The Economic Impact of the Marshall Plan

5 The Marshall Plan Fifty Years Later: Three What-Ifs and a When 119
   Roy Gardner
6 The Market and the Marshall Plan
   Barry Eichengreen

7 The Marshall Plan in Economic Perspective: Goals and Accomplishments
   Imanuel Wexler

8 Struggle for Survival: American Aid and Greek Reconstruction
   Stelios Zachariou

Part Four
The Marshall Plan and the Organization of Political Life in Postwar Europe

9 The Marshall Plan and French Politics
   Irwin Wall

   Jacqueline McGlade

11 Embedded Liberalism in France? American Hegemony, the Monnet Plan, and Postwar Multilateralism
   Stewart Patrick

Part Five
The Marshall Plan and Public Opinion

12 French Public Opinion and the Marshall Plan: the Communists and Others
   Roland Cayrol

13 The Legacy of the Marshall Plan: American Public Support for Foreign Aid
   Robert Shapiro

14 The Marshall Plan and Cold War Political Discourse
   James E. Cronin

Index

295