Nationalism, historiography and the (re)construction of the past

Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Preface ix

Prof. J. Breuilly 1

Museums, Monuments and Cultural Property: Creating a National Heritage

2. (Re)Presenting Roman History in Italy, 1911-1955
Joshua Arthurs 29

3. Renovating the Public Past: Nation-building, Symbolic Reparation and the Politics of Heritage in Post-Apartheid South Africa
M.K. Flynn and Tony King 45

4. 'Greek' Objects on Turkish Soil: A Link Between the Inalienability of 'Cultural Property' and Notions of Place in the Context of Turkish Claims for Repatriation
Eisuke Tanaka 61

Myths of Descent, Race and Contemporary Politics

5. The End of 'Jugoslovenstvo': New Myths of Ethnic Descent Among the Southern Slavs
Ulf Brunnbauer 81

Tom Turner 97
Nationalist Art and Performance

7. Mapping the Nation Through Performance in Yemen: Sanaa as 'the Capital of the Present, the History and the Unity'
   Ulrike Stohrer
   115

   Kochi Okada
   127

9. Common Strategies Employed in Transforming Religious Art into National Art
   Sophie Hadjipapa
   141

The Remembering of the Past to Construct the Nation in Post-Ottoman States

10. The Patron Saints of Turkish Humanism: Mysticism and the Formation of the Turkish Nation
    Mark Soileau
    173

11. Narrating the 'Yoke of Oppression': Twentieth Century Hungarian Scholarship of the Ottoman-Hungarian Borderlands
    Claire Norton
    187

12. The Re-Construction of the Past in the Greek Left: the Case of Five Special Issues Published in Review of Art
    Matrona Paleou
    201

About the Authors
216