Violence against women and the role of gender equality, social inclusion and health strategies

Synthesis Report
EGGSI coordinating team
Chiara Crepaldi, Manuela Samek Lodovici, Marcella Corsi
In collaboration with: Sandra Naaf

Expert Group on Gender Equality and Social Inclusion, Health and Long-Term Care Issues (EGGSI)

The national experts (* indicates non-EU countries)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nationality</th>
<th>Name</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Austria</td>
<td>Bettina Haidinger</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Belgium</td>
<td>Nathalie Wuiame</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulgaria</td>
<td>Maria Slaveva Prohaska</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Croatia</td>
<td>Siniša Zrinščak*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cyprus</td>
<td>Susana Pavlou</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Czech Republic</td>
<td>Alena Klžková</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Denmark</td>
<td>Tine Rostgaard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Estonia</td>
<td>Reelika Leetmaa and Marre Karu*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Finland</td>
<td>Johanna Tammi-Taskula</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>France</td>
<td>Anne Eydoux</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany</td>
<td>Alexandra Scheele and Julia Lepperhoff*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Greece</td>
<td>Maria Thanopoulou and Johanna Tsiganou*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hungary</td>
<td>Beáta Nagy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Iceland</td>
<td>Sígvís Sigurgeirsdóttir*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ireland</td>
<td>Mary Murphy and Maria Hegarty*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italy</td>
<td>Flavia Pesce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latvia</td>
<td>Tana Lace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Liechtenstein</td>
<td>Ulrike Papouschek*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lithuania</td>
<td>Ruta Braziene</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Luxembourg</td>
<td>Christel Baltes-Lörh</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Macedonia</td>
<td>Jana Lozanoska*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Malta</td>
<td>Frances Camilleri-Cassar</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Netherlands</td>
<td>Hugo Swinnen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Norway</td>
<td>Ira Malmberg-Heimonen*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poland</td>
<td>Irena Topinska</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Portugal</td>
<td>Teresa Sarmento</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Romania</td>
<td>Livia Popescu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slovakia</td>
<td>Barbora Holubová</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slovenia</td>
<td>Masa Filipovic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spain</td>
<td>Elvira González Gago</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sweden</td>
<td>Anita Nyberg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Switzerland</td>
<td>Yıldız Ecevit*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Turkey</td>
<td>Claire Annesley</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

European Commission
Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities
Unit G1
Manuscript completed in September 2010
Contents

Executive summary .............................................................................................................7
Résumé .............................................................................................................................. 15
Zusammenfassung ........................................................................................................... 25
Introduction ...................................................................................................................... 35

1. Violence against women in Europe: main features and recent trends .......... 49
   1.1. Overview of main features of violence against women in Europe ...............49
       1.1.1. Discussion of data availability and reliability ........................................49
       1.1.2. Presentation of available data on the main types of violence grouped by context and groups of women mainly affected .........................................................54
       1.1.3. Groups of women mainly affected .........................................................81
       1.1.4. Trends in recent years ............................................................................85
   1.2. The consequences of violence on women’s health and social exclusion ......87

2. Policies addressing violence against women ..................................................... 93
   2.1. Social awareness and political debate .............................................................93
   2.2. A brief overview of the European framework ................................................100
   2.3. Policy approaches adopted in European countries ........................................105
       2.3.1. Evolution of legislation and national action plans .................................105
       2.3.2. Types of violence against women addressed in national action plans ....113
       2.3.3. Increasing attention to prevention and support measures and to the needs of vulnerable groups of women ...............................................................125
   2.4. Main stakeholders and partnerships .................................................................131
   2.5. Resource allocation .........................................................................................136
   2.6. Relevant prevention programmes ....................................................................138
       2.6.1. Awareness-raising programmes .........................................................139
       2.6.2. Professional training and educational programmes ...............................142
       2.6.3. Treatment for abusers .........................................................................146
   2.7. Relevant victim support/treatment programmes .............................................149
       2.7.1. Women’s crisis centres and shelters ...................................................149
       2.7.2. Dedicated helplines ..........................................................................155
       2.7.3. Dedicated treatment and protection services ......................................158
   2.8. Relevant social inclusion/reintegration programmes .......................................160

3. Overall conclusions and policy implications .....................................................165

References .....................................................................................................................173
Annexes .........................................................................................................................189
List of boxes

Box 1  — International definitions of violence against women ................................................................. 36
Box 2  — National definitions of violence against women in action plans and in the most relevant laws or regulations in 33 European countries ................................................................. 37
Box 1.1  — International data on crimes referring to VAW ................................................................. 51
Box 1.2  — Some international data collection projects on human trafficking ......................................... 52
Box 1.3  — Examples of national surveys on sexual harassment ............................................................... 53
Box 1.4  — Examples of data collections on services addressing women victims of violence .................... 54
Box 1.5  — Main features and figures of domestic violence in some European countries ............... 56
Box 1.6  — Some figures from EGGSI reports on FGM and forced marriages ........................................... 67
Box 1.7  — The phenomenon of femicide in some European countries ................................................. 72
Box 1.8  — Sexual violence and rape incidences in some European countries ...................................... 75
Box 1.9  — Some national examples of sexual harassment incidences ................................................. 77
Box 1.10  — Trends in recent years in some European countries ............................................................ 86
Box 2.1  — Awareness among citizens of the perception and relevance of the problem ..................................... 95
Box 2.2  — The relevance of the problem in policymakers’ agendas .......................................................... 96
Box 2.3  — Media coverage of the problem ................................................................................................ 98
Box 2.4  — Recommendation Rec(2002)5 on the protection of women against violence .................................. 101
Box 2.5  — European Union main binding legislative instruments on VAW-related issues ......................... 102
Box 2.6  — The European Daphne programme ......................................................................................... 104
Box 2.7  — Examples of comprehensive NAPs addressing most forms of violence against women .......... 109
Box 2.8  — Examples of non-comprehensive action plans ................................................................. 112
Box 2.9  — Examples of national action plans on domestic violence .................................................... 113
Box 2.10  — Examples of national action plans on trafficking ............................................................ 116
Box 2.11  — Examples of action plans on female genital mutilation ...................................................... 121
Box 2.12  — Examples of measures on forced marriage ........................................................................ 122
Box 2.13  — Examples of legal provisions on stalking ............................................................................. 123
Box 2.14  — Examples of measures on harassment at work ..................................................................... 124
Box 2.15  — Examples of measures for ethnic minority and immigrant women ..................................... 126
Box 2.16  — Examples of measures for women victims of trafficking ................................................... 127
Box 2.17  — Examples of measures for girls and young women ............................................................. 128
Box 2.18  — Examples of measures supporting disabled women and elderly women .................................. 129
Box 2.19  — Examples of measures supporting women in rural areas .................................................. 131
Box 2.20  — Examples of partnerships within countries ........................................................................... 133
Box 2.21  — Examples of cross-country partnerships ........................................................................... 135
Box 2.22  — Examples of resource allocations ....................................................................................... 137
Box 2.23  — Good practices in awareness-raising campaigns ................................................................... 141
Box 2.24  — Examples of good practice in the implementation of education and training measures .......... 144
Box 2.25  — Examples of good practice in anti-violence treatment programmes for violent men ............ 147
Box 2.26  — Good practice examples of women’s shelters ....................................................................... 154
Box 2.27  — Good practice examples of helplines ............................................................................... 157
Box 2.28  — Good practices in the immediate treatment and protection of women victims of domestic violence and abuse .................................................................................. 159
Box 2.29  — Examples of programmes supporting affordable housing .................................................... 161
Box 2.30  — Examples of programmes providing employment, training and social services ..................... 163
List of tables
Table 1.1 — Factors that perpetuate domestic violence ................................................................. 64
Table 1.2 — Exposure to selected social risks, by sex, occupational category and working time status in % (of total workers), EU-27, 2005 ........................................................................ 66
Table 1.3 — Homicide and assault, females, standard death ratio per 100 000 and absolute value .......... 71
Table 1.4 — Female victims of sexual assault, different years .......................................................... 73
Table 1.5 — Total recorded cases of rape in criminal (police) statistics, including attempts to commit crimes, and rate per 100 000, 2004 ........................................................................ 74
Table 1.6 — Mortality estimations related to intimate partner violence in EU-27, 2006 ...................... 92
Table 2.1 — National action plans on violence against women and period of validity .......................... 107
Table 2.2 — Support services provided for women victims of violence, 2009 .................................. 151
Table 2.3 — Coverage of the needs of shelter places according to the Council of Europe recommendations (one family place per 10 000 population) .................................................... 153
Table 2.4 — Helplines at national and regional level, 2009 ............................................................. 156

List of figures
Figure 1.1 — Females, homicide and assault, per 100 000, 2005, standardised death rate .................. 70
Figure 1.2 — Seriousness of domestic violence perceived in EU-27, 2010 ....................................... 78
Figure 2.1 — Is it urgent to take action against the violence suffered by women? .......................... 94
Figure 2.2 — Acts of violence penalised in European countries ..................................................... 106
Figure 2.3 — Forms of violence against women addressed in action plans ................................ 120
Figure 2.4 — Dissemination of information about women’s rights, legal and protection measures, services for victims ........................................................................................................ 140
Figure 2.5 — Initial and further training on violence against women .............................................. 143
Figure 2.6 — Intervention programmes for men perpetrators ....................................................... 146
Figure 2.7 — Diffusion and accessibility of shelter places and services provided for victims of sexual assault .... 150