CONTENTS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE RUSSIAN POWER PROJECTION IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Andrei Piontkovski. Putin's Russia as a revisionist power 6

Carolina Vendil Pallin. Russia challenges the West in Ukraine 14

Viatcheslav Morozov. Aimed for the better, ended up with the worst: Russia and international order 26

Armand Gosu. The Seizure of Crimea - a Game Changer for the Black Sea Region 37

Natalia Yudina. Russian nationalists fight Ukrainian war 47

Peter Mattsson. Russian Military Thinking — A New Generation of Warfare 61

Niklas Eklund. Vision Impossible? Some aspects of the current Russian debates about the military sciences 71

Daivis Petraitis. Is Russian military back on its feet? 85

Anna-Liisa Heusala. 'Consolidation' and 'securitisation' of the Russian state. Implications for power projection 96

Suvi Kansikas. The Eurasian Economic Union, Russia's integration policy and the EU challenge 108

Nerijus Maliukevičius. Tools of Destabilization': Kremlin's Media Offensive in Lithuania 117

Vyktintas Pugačiauskas. In the post-Soviet propaganda sphere 127

Asta Maskaliūnaitė. Requiem for a dream. Review of Peter Pomerantsev’s Nothing is true and everything is possible 144

Asta Maskaliūnaitė. From authoritarianism to authoritarianism and back again. Review of William Zimmerman. Ruling Russia. Authoritarianism from the revolution to Putin 147

Augustine Meaher. The real 'Russia House.' Review of Jeremy Duns, Dead Drop: The True Story of Oleg Penkovsky and the Cold War's Most Dangerous Operation 151